PROVIDENCE HEALTH & SERVICES is guided by a Mission of caring that the Sisters of Providence began in the Northwest 160 years ago. We provide compassionate, high-quality, affordable care to all who need our services.

Providence is the largest health care provider in Oregon and one of the largest private employers in the state.

Except for 2016 Providence Health Plan membership, all statistics in this overview are based on 2015 data, with community benefit also based on Oregon reporting requirements.
Serving our communities

Continuing a history of compassionate service, Providence reaches beyond the walls of our clinical settings to touch the lives of vulnerable individuals. We do this through community benefit investments, collaborating with local partners to assess community health needs and create solutions together.

Reduced need for charity care allows our ministries more opportunity to intentionally invest in organizations and programs that help people in most need.

Last year, Providence invested more than $417.5 million in community benefit. This included $43.4 million in free and discounted care so people who are uninsured or underinsured could access services. Other investments were in health education and research, along with $16 million in community partnerships to directly fund health improvement initiatives and health screenings across Oregon.
